

CFLGBT

RESPECT

CODE OF CONDUCT

FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES

AND SCHOOL SPORTS

The contribution of every student is valuable. Each student deserves to be treated with RESPECT. The DIVERSITY OF A CLASS or team is what makes it STRONG. When every student is valued, respected and feels included THE CLASS OR TEAM IS MORE COHESIVE, everyone feels that they belong and everyone performs to their highest potential.

ALL ARE WELCOME

and included regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, race or religion, body type, ability, appearance or personal style.

NO TEASING OR TAUNTING.

NO NAME-CALLING.

NO BULLYING.

PLAY BY THE RULES.

TREAT OTHERS WITH RESPECT.

CHEER OTHERS ON.

SHARE PLAY-TIME AND TAKE TURNS.

WIN OR LOSE

BE A GOOD SPORT

HAVE FUN!

SAFE
SPORTS SPACE

A SAFE SPORTS SPACE* is a space where all physical education students and teachers, athletes, coaches, spectators and families are safe and treated with respect, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, race or religion, ability, appearance or personal style.

*Gym, pool, track, playing fields, locker room, training room, weight room, coaches' or teachers' office or any other sports space in school.

©2017-LGBT Family Coalition. Adapted by the LGBT Family Coalition from GLSEN's Changing the Game Sports Project.